Board of Directors Summary

November 14, 2019

Action Items

- The board elected the following individuals as the 2020 RAYAC Officers: Tina Llorente Vice President, Ed Bender Treasurer, Melinda Eppolito Secretary, Sue Pindle as the Vice President in 2019 automatically ascends to the 2020 President.
- The board approved 2020 Committee and Taskforce Chairs.
- The board reviewed two Ethics complaints and adopted verbatim the hearing panel recommendations.

Reports

- The board received a report from the NAR Annual Conference. NAR as adopted a clear cooperation policy for all association MLS in the country to go into effect on May 1, 2020. The new policy indicates listings need to be inputted into the MLS within 1 business day of publicly marketing the property for sale. NAR also changed the Code of Ethics training requirement from a 2 year cycle to a 3 year cycle.
- The board discussed in detail the Bright MLS Off MLS policy which requires a listing to be placed in the MLS within 1 business day of publicly marketing the property. If the seller does not wish for the property to go into the MLS they have the right to waive the property being placed in the MLS, however, they are also then waiving their right to publicly market the property for sale. If it is not in the MLS it can only be marketed to the listing agents internal brokerage company.
- The board reviewed progress and action steps of obtaining strategic goal #5 with the objective to lead a nationally respected REALTORS association.

25 Years in the Business!

Are you getting ready to celebrate your 25th year in the real estate business? If so, we want to help you celebrate this milestone. Please let Shanna Terroso know by Friday, December 15th if this marks your 25th year in the business. You can email Shanna at shanna@rayac.com.

The RAYAC Foundation is excited to bring you a brand new concession stand!

Next time you are in the RAYAC office, stop by the kitchen area and check out the new concession stand we have created just for you! Every item is $1 and all profits benefit the RAYAC Foundation. This area will always be fully stocked with your favorite drinks and snacks! If there is anything you are craving and would like to have offered in the snack area, let us know! Happy snacking!

FAQ: National Flood Insurance Program Expires December 20, 2019

What is the issue?

NFIP's authority to provide flood insurance is currently set to expire at midnight on Friday, December 20, 2019. NAR is making every effort to secure a long-term reauthorization of the program. Here are answers to frequently asked questions about what this means for upcoming closings and several proactive steps your clients can take in the interim.

What is the latest?

The House of Representatives has not scheduled a vote on the NFIP Reauthorization Act (HR 3167) that unanimously passed the Financial Services Committee on June 11 and is supported by NAR policy. Several other bills have been introduced in the Senate, but no further action has been taken. Congressional and White House leaders have attached an NFIP extension to the Continuing Resolution to keep the federal government operating until there is agreement on 2020 appropriation bills. NAR is urging the longest extension possible while Congress continues working toward a 5-year reauthorization measure.

What is NAR doing?

- NAR is in regular communication with Congressional leaders and the White House.
- NAR is coordinating with a broad coalition of industry groups to support a long-term reauthorization.
- Flood insurance was a priority talking point for meetings with members of Congress over August recess.
- Hundreds of members of Congress were contacted about NFIP's importance to every state in the U.S.
- NAR has raised the issue's profile with multiple calls for action, talking points, op-eds and state letters.

What happens if there is a lapse?

- NFIP cannot sell new or renew flood insurance policies after 11:59 pm (Eastern) on December 20.
- Existing NFIP policies will remain in effect until their expiration date (i.e., the renewal date plus a 30-day grace period), and claims will continue to be paid as long as FEMA has the funds on hand.
- Renewal policies are generally issued as long as the application is received prior to a lapse and the premium is received within the 30-day grace period. Other renewals must wait for reauthorization.
- During a lapse, property buyers can assume existing/renewal policies. "Assignment of policies" (page 3 her (link is external)) allows insurers to substitute the buyer's name for the seller's without having to reissue the policy.
- Private flood insurance backed by a source other than NFIP (e.g., Lloyd's of London) are not affected. Visit the Pennsylvania Insurance Department page(link is external) and the Florida Office of Insurance Regulation page(link is external) for options. Please remind your clients to read the fine print of any insurance policy.
- The federal requirement to purchase flood insurance is suspended, which means it is up to lenders to decide whether to make loans in special flood hazard areas while NFIP insurance is not available.

Topics covered in this course include the letter of intent, the commercial agreement of sale, environmental issues, leases and clauses, property management, 1031 exchanges, tenant fit out, floor measurement and load factors, and zoning issues. Lunch included.

License Renewal Information

The current license renewal cycle started on June 1, 2018 and runs through May 31, 2020. All licensees must complete 14 hours of continuing education by May 31, 2020 in order to renew their licenses.

For this current cycle, the PA Real Estate Commission has mandated that, of those 14 hours, 2 hours must be in the area of Advertising, and 1.5 hours must be in the area of Property Management.

New Agents: All agents renewing their licenses for the first time are required by the PA Real Estate Commission to complete 2 seven-hour courses. The first course, required for ALL agents, is the General Module. The second required class is EITHER the Residential Module, OR the Commercial Module, depending on which type of real estate you practice. Each course is approved for 7 hours of Real Estate CE, so that would complete the 14 hour renewal requirement. Agents who must complete these modules are exempt from the Real Estate Commission mandate to take education in the areas of Advertising/Property Management.

If a license is/was issued between December 1, 2017 and November 30, 2019, the agent must complete the modules to meet the CE requirement for renewal.

If a license is issued between December 1, 2019 and February 29, 2020, the agent must renew their license by May 31, 2020, but will be exempt from the CE requirement.

Real Estate Continuing Education

Tuesday, February 11, 2020 Pricing in a Competitive Market Cost: $40.00

8:30 AM - 12:00 Noon Instructor: Melanie McLane 3.5 hours Real Estate CE

In this class, you will be introduced to the concepts of appraisal versus a CMA, and the general descriptions of each, as well as the legal obligations that an agent has in Pennsylvania with respect to a CMA—when it can be done, which disclaimers apply, etc. With close to 60% of all agents, nationwide, having tenure of less than 5 years in the real estate business, many of them have not experienced what some call a 'down' market, and others call a 'normal' market. Students will learn how to read supply and demand in a market, calculate absorption rate, and critically evaluate what comparable data is still germane. The goal is to learn how to price properly, to avoid carrying listings for a long time, and also, to not disappoint property owners.

Tuesday, February 11, 2020 Financing and Closing the Real Estate Transaction Cost: $40.00

1:00 PM - 4:30 PM Instructor: Melanie McLane 3.5 hours Real Estate CE

This course will discuss the basics of financial qualification, review lender ratios, the three C's of credit, how to assist a buyer in deciding upon a mortgage, how amortization works, and the basic financial skills needed by a real estate licensee. It is recommended that before attending class, students either bring a financial calculator that can calculate mortgages and outstanding balances, or download an app that does this to their smart phones. We will also review lenders' requirements for various loan programs, how lenders are valuing properties for mortgages, and how to shepherd a sale to a successful closing.

REQUIRED FOR THE 2020 RENEWAL CYCLE

For the 2018—2020 license renewal cycle, the PA State Real Estate Commission has mandated that all licensees complete 2 hours of education in the area of Advertising, and 1.5 hours in the area of Property Management, before renewing their licenses in 2020. The RAYAC course Advertising & Property Management meets this requirement. In addition, it meets the NAR Biennial Ethics requirement, which is due by December 31, 2021.

Wednesday, February 12, 2020 COE: Advertising & Property Management Cost: $40.00

8:30 AM - 12:00 Noon Instructor: Melanie McLane 3.5 hours Real Estate CE

You will then examine the Standard Agreement for the Sale of Real Estate contract (PAR form ASR). Make sure you fully understand this contract and all it's guidelines and uses.

Wednesday, February 26, 2020 Commercial Forms & Foibles Cost: 40.00

1:00 PM - 4:30 PM Instructor: Brett Woodburn, Esq. 3.5 hours Real Estate

This course will give commercial agents a great update and refresher on standard commercial forms. We will also cover standard and non-standard addenda, modifications, and legal and ethical ramifications. The course will not only cover SREC rules and regulations on proper use of forms and contract law, but also how the NAR Code of Ethics applies closely to those regulations and how a violation of one is typically a violation of the other.

Thursday, February 27, 2020 What Do I Do When Cost: 80.00
8:30 AM - 4:30 PM Instructor: Michelle Bradley 7 hours Real Estate CE

Ever wonder how to handle an unusual situation? This course is designed to provide answers to situations that students might experience, whether on the listing side, or the selling side. Topics include: what should you do when you suspect coercion or fraud, when you are threatened, or when the client's requests cannot be met. Should a licensee talk to an appraiser? What information could/should the agent share? Does the business need to be combative? Join us for a lively, interactive class about how to best protect yourself, your clients, and remain in compliance with laws and regulations. Lunch is included.

Tuesday, March 17, 2020	Oddballs: Pricing Unusual Properties	Cost: $40.00
8:30 AM - 12:00 Noon	Instructor: Melanie McLane	3.5 hours Real Estate CE

Everyone can price the generic 3 bedroom ranch or 4 bedroom Colonial, but what do you do with an oddball? Oddballs have unusual sizes, lot sizes, features, lack of features, individualized styles and décor, and much more. However, many oddball properties do not appeal to "typical buyers". Discussion will include identifying the relevant characteristics of a property, as well as determining the Scope of Work for the assignment. Another challenge is getting mortgage loans approved for these properties - we will explore the use of portfolio lenders, and how this often applies to oddballs. Come get some great tips for how to price the oddballs in your world!

In this class, we will cover the always thorny question of agency. PA's Act 112 will be covered in detail, as will the Code of Ethics of the National Association of REALTORS® Much confusion still exists about agency issues among licensees in Pennsylvania regarding dual agency, designated agency, and transaction licensee transactions. We will also review the new standards forms in use by most licensees, and discuss single agency, dual agency, designated agency, changing an agency role, confidential information before and after an agency relationship, writing and presenting offers, escalation clauses, multiple offer situations and specific difficult situations for agents.

Thursday, April 23, 2020 Digital World: Ethics & Laws Cost: $40.00

1:00 PM - 4:30 PM Instructor: Melanie McLane 3.5 hours Real Estate CE

This course will review the digital elements of your business, including current RELRA regulations regarding advertising and social media posts. It will also incorporate sections of the NAR Code of Ethics, especially Articles 12 and 15, and will review general guidelines concerning advertising, including Internet sources such as Facebook, Twitter, Linkedin, Instagram, Pinterest, etc. You will learn to identify ethical and legal dilemmas in the Internet age, privacy concerns for both agents and consumers, understand the purpose of blogging for licensees, and learn how to create and follow an ethical and safe policy with respect to use of the Internet for marketing.

Tuesday, April 29, 2020 Best of the Hotline Cost: $40.00 8:30 AM - 12:00 Noon Instructor: Peter T. Ruth, Esq. 3.5 hours Real Estate CE

The Legal Hotline provides you the opportunity to have all your legal questions answered. Keep your finger on the pulse of today's hot issues, and learn the answers to not only the most commonly asked questions, but also to those unusual situations. Also learn about current trends occurring in today's real estate market. A fascinating look at what goes on in our business today!

Tuesday, April 29, 2020 PA Real Estate Transactions: Disclosures, Contracts, Addendums Cost: $40.00

1:00 PM - 4:30 PM Instructor: Peter T. Ruth, Esq. 3.5 hours Real Estate

This course covers legal relationships with consumers, a review of real estate contract law, highlights of the Agreement of Sale, addendums to the Agreement of Sale, and the PA Seller Disclosure Form. Several additional contracts will be reviewed, so don't miss this opportunity to keep up with the most recent contract changes and updates.

Tuesday, May 5, 2020

Fair Housing—Is It Really Fair?

Cost: $40.00

1:00 PM - 4:30 PM

Instructor: Brett Woodburn, Esq.

3.5 hours Real Estate CE

This course will examine several aspects of the Fair Housing Act, including its scope, protected classes at both the State and Federal level, disparate impact and criminal records, and state laws and prohibitions. You will also cover advertising prohibitions and exceptions, statistics and prosecutions, and Pennsylvania's "bad words." Finally, you will learn the definition of "service animal," laws and required training, and "reasonable accommodations." Stay up-to-date with the newest guidelines so you will remain compliant.

Tuesday, May 5, 2020

So Sue Me!

Cost: $40.00

1:00 PM - 4:30 PM

Instructor: Brett Woodburn, Esq.

3.5 hours Real Estate CE

Real estate licensees will examine how to deal with lawsuits and threats of lawsuits from clients, consumers, and others. It is a benefit to the public for real estate licensees to be aware of the PA laws and complaint process so that they can fully inform the public of the process and implications. Agents must fully understand the law, so they can help ensure that the public is not harmed in any way. The course will include an example of how a complaint is filed, investigated, and resolved, with examples of all types of resolution included.

Financing and Closing the Real Estate Transaction

Cost: $40.00

8:30 AM - 12:00 Noon

Instructor: Melanie McLane

3.5 hours Real Estate CE

In this class, you will be introduced to the concepts of appraisal versus a CMA, and the general descriptions of each, as well as the legal obligations that an agent has in Pennsylvania with respect to a CMA—when it can be done, which disclaimers apply, etc. With close to 60% of all agents, nationwide, having tenure of less than 5 years in the real estate business, many of them have not experienced what some call a 'down' market, and others call a 'normal' market. Students will learn how to read supply and demand in a market, calculate absorption rate, and critically evaluate what comparable data is still germane. The goal is to learn how to price properly, to avoid carrying listings for a long time, and also, to not disappoint property owners.

Wednesday, May 20, 2020

Pricing in a Competitive Market

Cost: $40.00

1:00 PM - 4:30 PM

Instructor: Melanie McLane

3.5 hours Real Estate CE

This course will discuss the basics of financial qualification, review lender ratios, the three C's of credit, how to assist a buyer in deciding upon a mortgage, how amortization works, and the basic financial skills needed by a real estate licensee. It is recommended that before attending class, students either bring a financial calculator that can calculate mortgages and outstanding balances, or download an app that does this to their smart phones. We will also review lenders' requirements for various loan programs, how lenders are valuing properties for mortgages, and how to shepherd a sale to a successful closing.

Thursday, May 21, 2020

A Heartfelt Thank You

by Shanna Terroso, RCE, e-PRO

Thanksgiving has come and gone, along with its delicious leftover stuffing. The holiday flew by much like the entire year of 2019. Before we gather around to watch the ball drop in Times Square, I wanted to take this opportunity to share my thanks with everyone at RAYAC.

I'm thankful for the philanthropic nature of the RAYAC membership. In October, the RAYAC Foundation awarded more than $30,000 to housing related charities in York & Adams Counties. Kudos to the Spring Fling, Golf Outing, Bowl-a-thon and Bag Bingo task forces who raised so much money on behalf of the Foundation. October also marked a month where REALTORS continued to give back to the community in a big way. The Hands-on Helpers Task Force pulled off the fourth annual Homeless Outreach Event in York County. Many of our offices generously donated items to this event. Those items were given to members of our community who were most in need. 170 homeless or near homeless individuals were also provided services that day.

I'm thankful for the dedicated volunteer leadership of RAYAC. With 15 elected board members, and over 140 committee and task force volunteers, many RAYAC members have donated countless hours to further our mission and services to our members. We cannot do what we do without their dedication to RAYAC. A special thank you to Heather Kreiger, our 2019 RAYAC President for her leadership. I cannot miss the opportunity to thank all 20 of our 2019 chairpersons. Their names are listed on page 6. Without their leadership and guidance at the committee level we could not be the great association we are today.

Last but certainly not least, I'm thankful for the RAYAC staff. Each day they are committed to providing top notch service to all our members and work tirelessly on their behalf.

I hope you will all take the time during the hustle and bustle of the holiday season to reflect and give thanks for the blessings in your life.
