Central York High School is a very diverse school. This school allows many of opportunities of involvement and success. With class sizes of 500 people there are many to make friends with. The sports programs are very successful with great coaching. The academic faculty is some of the best in the state. They offer freedom when branching into areas of interest in academics, while revolving around a base general education. They offer students access to laptops/computers for personal use while a student at the school.

Central York High School provided me with an excellent foundation of education that set me up to succeed in college. I feel very prepared in all aspects to do well in higher education and am very satisfied with how CYHS operated for my four years there.

I really like the freedom we get at the high school. There are so many options for learning that we can choose from. The teachers are extremely flexible and really care about the students and our success.

Growing up in the district, I learned to be kind to others and was pushed to challenge myself academically. In terms of social life, CYHS was great and offered SO MANY opportunities to meet new people and bond over shared interests. Academically, they offered many many choices to customize your learning and helped you navigate every possible option you could take to better prepare for your future. Though Central was not immune to the expected trials and tribulations that come with an American high school, the faculty and staff ensured you always had someone to talk to and made sure you were always safe.

My experience was the best! Everyone in the school wants you to succeed. Being an honors student throughout my four years of high school it was very challenging, but I put hard work and dedication into any task. I would like to see everyone in my school to do the same as well. Seeing underclassmen try so hard to accomplish something but give up when they are so close breaks my heart. When you have your mind set on something you should accomplish it and prove to everyone that you can do whatever you set your mind to do. My goal is to go to college and graduate with the best grades.
