Gettysburg High School is a great school! I loved my high school experience and after being in college and hearing what other schools are like I'm learning just how good of an education I received. They helped me when and worked with me when I was out of school sick for three months, and then again when I had problems with grades towards graduation. If you are an involved student you will have a great time. Also, make sure to dual enroll at HACC its a great opportunity and will save you a lot of money when college comes.

The majority of people at this school are kind and dedicated to your academic success. I would like to see more consequences for the racist behavior of particular students and teachers.

The teachers and staff make a very fun learning environment. You are treated well. They are always there to help you. The only negative is homeroom every day where you cant go to the bathroom without an escort. Which encourages you to use it during class to miss out on important information.

At the Gettysburg Area High School, there are so many opportunities for students to use their talents, abilities and ambitions to make a career out of them. For example, the high has a Tech Prep program, where students who want to build houses, go into the medical field, work on vehicles, cooking, etc. That's not all. Student's have the opportunities to take HACC courses, AP courses, and join multiple clubs. Student's can even form their own club. If there could be any improvements to the school, it would be the food served in cafeterias to a more nutritious selection, and the organization of forms and other important documents.

I think Gettysburg has amazing opportunities that other surroundings schools don't offer! The school is filled with many chances for academic growth as well as all different kinds of clubs, sports, and other ways to get involved!
