More college prep needed. Nice teachers but local focus vs encouraging students to look at more out of state schools...frustrating because some students don't want to stay in the area after graduation.

The teachers really invest in their students and that helped me to grow during my high school years. Some of the organizational rules could use some work. I would love to see the school incorporate their alumni back into things more regularly, as I think it's good for the students to see their prospective futures! I would also like to see more investment into getting new students connected with clubs and activities. I came to Red Land as a Junior so it was hard to get connected when everybody already had their groups.

I liked the diverse activities that the school offers. The teachers are super sweet and nice and understanding. I would like to see the sports teams get better. I would also like to see the dress code and vaping be cracked down in more.

Red Land High School is made up of passionate teachers, helpful and relatable administrators and phenomenal sports teams. The student body could be a little less rowdy but it is still made up of many high achieving teenagers who strive for greatness. The student body always has so much spirit and pride in the school and there really is an overall feeling in the air that we are all in this together. The only thing I would like to see change would be an allowance of student access to our beautiful courtyards. I feel that when students have a chance to study, eat, or even just spend time outside during the school day, their performance increases greatly throughout all their classes.

Red Land high school is a moderately small school in a small town in PA. Everyone who goes there has known their classmates their whole lives so the friendships and connections are a very strong attribute to our school. With most of our Varsity Sports we have a large student section where our school spirit overflows onto the fields which lead us to victory. Perhaps one of the best parts about our school is the teaching staff. Most of the teachers here are willing to help and make sure you get where you want to go in life. For example, assisting with college applications or working during their lunch to help you get ready for a test. This school provided me with the tools I need for my future and have given me 4 great years. I would recommend this school to anyone!
