Community Reviews for this School

It's the same thing everyday but with better experiences. Some days are good others are great depending on who you surround yourself with. But, all around, it's a pretty good school.

This is a pretty good high school, overall. I've met some teachers over the past four years I'm a senior who have genuinely cared about their students and their future and would do anything in their power to make sure you're successful. The only issue I can really find within the school is tolerance towards the LGBTQ+ community. I think that the school and administration itself is pretty accepting as it allows the school to host a Day of Silence run by the school's Gay-Straight Alliance, but because of students, the atmosphere can be very unwelcome for openly queer or closeted students. There are many students who are homophobic and who will even go as far as to tear down posters and put up their own and start social media accounts centered around hate and bigotry. But, I guess some of that can be expected of any school environment but personally, I find it worrying that so many members of the student body feel and behave this way.

All of the teachers here are very nice. They are very caring and helpful with everything. They will go out of their way to help you. The environment at this school is very ideal and safe.

Red Lion Sr High School offered a lot of diverse classes and opportunities outside of the school. Some of my favorite things they offered was the music and art program. Also the opportunity of 4th grade days, where high school students would teach 4th graders different science subjects while enjoying the outdoors.

Red Lion Senior High School is very rural and diverse, an extremely large area for one school district. I wish the athletic directors treated all sports teams as equally important. Nice that the school has a pool, would be nice if the track was inside of the stadium. Teachers seem very nice have had no issues with teachers or administration. Thank you!
