I would like to see more discipline to students who don't get enough, I feel like too many are left off the hook too easily

I have had a great experience. I have been provided with an excellent education. At our high school there are a lot of opportunities to get involved with the school. Between our music programs, sports, clubs, and organizations there are various opportunities for students to pursue. Our school promotes school spirit and student involvement.

I love the approach of allowing students to be more independent; it allows students to become more responsible. They allow each student to cater their course to their interests, while meeting graduation requirements.

I go to this school and I'm going to the 12 grade and my time in this school district has gotten worse. I honestly hate this school and the students are very weird and rude. The diversity is not go as well. There's about 90% white students and the other percent is Black and Hispanic.

I have had massive ups and downs. My biggest complaint is how administration handles abuse towards LGBTQ+ students. Our slurs aren't treated as equally as every other slur and it isn't fair. We brushed off more easily and aren't taken as seriously. Also, very few kids knew that we had a class that taught us about taxes and loans so that's pretty cruddy. SG is alright. It's definitely better than others which is why I only give it 3 stars.
