

RAYAC Housing Snapshot

A review of the residential market in York and Adams Counties

October 2026 Housing Statistics

The REALTORS® Association of York & Adams Counties (RAYAC) reports that a total of 1,020 homes were sold in Adams County in October 2026, which is a 10% increase from this time last year. In York County 4,678 homes were sold during the first ten months of the year, which is a 2% increase from this time last year.

The median sales price in Adams County was $350,000, a 3% increase from October 2025. The median sales price in York County was $310,000, a 6% increase from this time last year.

“October brought a cooling in buyer activity across York County, with pending transactions down 14% year over year and days on market increasing to 11. Inventory reached its highest level in five years, giving buyers more options. Despite this shift, York County continues to outperform national trends, with home prices up 6% and home sales up 2% year over year. These figures reflect the continued strength of our local housing market,” said Allison Altman, 2026 RAYAC President.
